Subject: Bachelor's Open Dag 9 Februari | Maastricht University

To: <secretaria@prointer.ufc.br>

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Bachelor's Open Day at Maastricht University (UM) is scheduled for Saturday, 9 February. We look forward to welcoming your students and their parents. There will be presentations, workshops and Q&As, providing in-depth information about our bachelor's programmes, our educational model and what it's like to study in Maastricht.

For reasons of sustainability, we are switching to digital communication as much as possible. You will find a digital poster for dissemination among your students and for narrow casting purposes here. And here's a short teaser for your students:

Find out more about one of the most international universities in Europe – visit our Bachelor's Open Day on 9 February! Maastricht University (UM) is known for its International Classroom and unique, small-scale approach to teaching: Problem-Based Learning (PBL) focuses on must-have skills required by the 21st-century workplace, such as independence, critical thinking, initiative, curiosity and creativity, as well as soft skills. Under the guidance of our experienced tutors, you will analyse and solve relevant, complex problems in small international groups.

If your students are unable to attend our open day, you may want to refer them to our Virtual Open Day: vod.maastrichtuniversity.nl

Best wishes,
The UM Bachelor's Open Day team
